Rooms Missouri Historical Society, St. Douis, Decer 80 1880 Dear Sir. The following description is given me: the locality was on a river bluff in Cole Co - the stump was a little over two feet high, about the height at which woodsmen Cur down trees - the stump was between 3/2 and 4 feet diam eter - the tree had been a red oak." Now the information I ack og you is I' assuming wood and height of tump as given, what would per the probable age (a) if only I feet deameter: (b) ef 3/r fur diam: (c) if 4 feet diam. 2' - To there any other Kind of oak for which this may have been mistaken (the person giving the information being acquainted with trees), and if so which would be older under the Dame dimensions, and what would have been the difference, 3. Could any other lovod have been mistaken for the red oak, and what would have been its probable aje! You would much oblige me by the information desired. Respectfully Hear W. Collet Delge Engelman.

ROOMS MISSOURI HISTORICAL SOCIETY. COURT HOUSE, Al Douis, Decem 1890 The following description is given me: the locality used on a river bluff in Cole Co - the stump was a little over leve feet beigh, about the height at which unodenen Cut down trees - the strong was between 3/2 and expert dien-Alen the tree had been a red out. " when the infarmalien it act of your is Contraction of the second contract to the second se under for the probable up to feet under the of different diam: (c) of it fait diam. "I'm elo there any vetter Hunce of call for which this muy have been mistation (the present printy the information : being arguentet with trus), and of an which would the older and the dame dimensions, and without everele thouse the clifferine," Could any other hors have been mistaker An the Red out, and what unit have been its purtable MISSOURI BOTANICAL GARDEN Mount much much man GEORGE ENGELMANN PAPERS the anternation decine

